

86-21-356 * Descriptive clipping approximately 50 mm by 100 mm (2 in. by 4 in.) and label with caption: "Woerd Avenue Boat House after fire in 1969." The Boat House was built during the nineteenth century as a community canoe house. It was changed to a boat and canoe club in 1937 and the upper section was purchased by the "Prospect Lodge of Odd Fellows" in 1938 and used as a community facility thereafter.

86-21-357 * Three-part newspaper clipping from the September 8, 1947 issue of the Waltham News Tribune on the subject of a Sea Scout Regatta. This item consists of a newspaper photograph with caption, a news story with the headline "Waltham Sea Scouts Record Impressive Victory in Regatta", and a date line from the top of the newspaper page. It proved unfeasible to remove the individual items from the black mounting paper. A 77% reduction photocopy of the entire original mount was made then the mount was cut into two pieces; one piece contained the photograph and date line; the second piece contained the news item. Full size photocopies were made of the cut pieces. Thus, this item consists of: three photocopies stored in the item file folder; the original clipping parts stored in an archival envelope with the latter stored in the file folder. The file folder and archival envelope both bear the item catalog number.

86-21-358A * Two pages of mounted rotogravure clippings, from a publication identified only as the "Herald". These show a Sea Scout regatta held at the Woerd Avenue Boat House. No date specified for the regatta or the issue of the "Herald" in which the pictures appeared. Each mounting page shows three rotogravure pictures with captions. Mounting page size is 216 mm by 356 mm (8.5 in. by 14.0 in.) Stored in oversize file box #1. See also item 86-21-358B.

86-21-358B * Reduced size photocopies (77% reduction) on 216 mm by 279 mm (8.5 in. by 11.0 in.) paper of each of the two pages in item 86-21-358A. Stored in a letter size folder.

86-21-359A * Newspaper clippings mounted on 216 mm by 356 mm (8.5 in. by 14.0 in.) black paper. Item consists of two pictures, a news article, and a label with the caption: "August 1962 - Religious services being held for Sea Scouts at tumble down house." Stored in oversize file box #1. See also item 86-21-359B.

86-21-359B * Reduced size photocopy, 77% reduction, of mounted newspaper clippings of item 86-21-359A. Copy size 216 mm by 279 mm (8.5 in. by 11.0 in.). Stored in letter size file folder..

86-21-360A * Newspaper clippings on the 1963 Scout-A-Rama at Cabot Reservation, Waltham mounted on both sides of a black paper mount, size 216 mm by 356 mm (8.5 in. by 14.0 in.) Side 1 has two captioned pictures, side 2 has three and a label with caption: "1963 Scout-A-Rama continued." Stored in oversize file box #1. See 86-21-360B for side identification.

86-21-360B * Reduced size photocopies (77% reduction) of sides 1 and 2 of 86-21-360A. Each side identified. Photocopy size 216 mm by 279 mm (8.5 in. by 11.0 in.)

86-21-361 to 86-21-365 * Five color photographs, each 3.5" by 3.5" and caption label. Reduced size (77% reduction) photocopy made of original full page mount. Each photograph stored in archival envelope. Photocopy of original page mount, size 216 mm by 279 mm (8.5 in. by 11.0 in.), and five archival envelopes stored in letter size file folder. Each photograph is identified with its catalog number on the photocopy.

86-21-361 * Color photograph and label with caption: "Waltham Sea Scouts 25th Anniversary held in Woerd Avenue Boat House May 1969."

86-21-362 * Color photograph of Sea Scout 25th Anniversary.
